Coaching Staff

Denis Nolan is the boys Varsity Basketball Coach. He started his coaching career as a grad assistant at L.I.U. in 1987. In 1989 he became the boys J.V. and Asst. Varsity coach at Bishop Ford. In 2000 he became the girls Varsity coach where his team won the 2005 Class C State Championship. He returned to the boy's side this year where he is looking forward to bringing his 24 years of experience to the camp.

Mike Toro is the girls Varsity Basketball Coach. He started his coaching career as Coach Denis Nolan's Asst. in 2007. In 2008 he became the girls Head J.V. coach reaching the Brooklyn/Queens championship in his first year. In 2009 he became the Head Varsity coach and has made the AA State Tournament in his 2 years of coaching. Mike has also coached youth basketball with the 78th precinct for 4 years.

The camp will be run and coached by New York City teachers and basketball coaches.

Camp Philosophy

Our philosophy will be to educate our students to be complete basketball players. They will all be taught post moves, perimeter shooting, as well as ball handling. As high school coaches we understand the importance of man to man defense so that is all that will be played and taught all week.

Each Camper Receives

- A Camp T-Shirt
- A Booklet of Drills
- A Personal Evaluation

Daily Prizes Awarded for Competitions.
